About the organisation

Written by the NGO

About FEEL Charitable Trust FEEL Charitable Trust (Focus, Enlighten, Empower, Liberate) is a registered charitable organisation established in 2022, committed to building an inclusive, equitable and compassionate society. We work to uplift underserved and economically disadvantaged communities through initiatives in education, healthcare, women’s empowerment, livelihood development, environmental protection and community welfare. Our work includes supporting children from Irular and Narikuravar tribal communities, providing educational assistance, promoting access to healthcare, empowering women through skill development, supporting vulnerable families and creating opportunities for sustainable development. We believe every individual deserves dignity, equal opportunities and the resources to build a better future. Our Mission: To empower underserved communities through sustainable, inclusive and community-driven initiatives that promote education, health, dignity, equality and self-reliance. Our Vision: A society where every individual has equal opportunities to thrive, every community lives with dignity, and development reaches those who need it most.

Geographic coverage: FEEL Charitable Trust primarily serves underserved and marginalised communities in Kanchipuram District, Tamil Nadu, India, with a focus on Irular and Narikuravar tribal settlements. Our programmes support vulnerable families, children, women, youth and elderly persons in rural and economically disadvantaged communities. The Trust aims to expand its services to other districts and regions based on community needs and available resources..
